LAVA Enamelled Cast Iron Anatolia Seljuk Casserole is a synthesis of experimentation at the highest point of enamelled cast iron manufacturing technology and imagination rooted in Anatolian Seljuks' traditions. Like the ornamentation's interlocking linear system, the Anatolia Seljuk Casserole interlocks the five senses. While the reliefs on the lid's surface offer a tactile sensation (1), the highpoints reflect the light for a dazzling sight (2). The Anatolia Seljuk Casserole's refined aesthetics and manufacturing technology elevate the expectation of delightful taste (3) as the scent (4) of sizzling food (5) lingers in your kitchen.

PRODUCT USAGE

Usage Suggestion You can continue your meal that you started on the stove in the oven with your cast iron pot or pan, without the need for your baking tray. We recommend that your pan reaches high heat before cooking your meat products. During cooking, make sure that the surface that touches the pan is sealed so that you can easily turn your meat. Since your cooker has the feature of retaining heat, we recommend using low heat for the dishes you will cook with less water. This will also allow you to save energy.
